SUBJECT: Extensive Agency Check of Sebastian RANNER, born 18 June 1905 in Munich

REF.: Your Information of 15 Dec 1962 - No. 27207 - B -

Investigations conducted concerning the information received from your office, revealed the following facts:

- REGENSBURG
- a) The Luxembourg Court for War Crimes, during its open sessions at the Justizpalast on 19, 26, and 27 February 1951, in which proceedings were held on charges of war crimes, among other persons also against RANNER who was represented by Lawyer SERVATIUS of Cologne, pronounced the following sentence in the matter of RANNER:

"he is to be acquitted of the charge".

Already on 23 March 1950, immediately after conclusion of the hearing, and 11 months prior to the pronouncing of the sentence, RANNER was released to Regensburg.

- b) On 2 June 1955, the Regensburg Chief Public Prosecutor, upon RANNER's request, issued a certificate for presentation to the Bavarian Border Police Presidium (under File No. I 1 Js 2606/50 that "...no proceedings are pending against your person at this Public Prosecutor's Office.
It is not expected that investigations will again be initiated on the basis of some occurrences prior to war's end, which might involve your person." The Regensburg proceedings were initiated against RANNER in order to obtain information concerning his activity at the State Police, Regensburg.
